PARISH MISSION

Our Lady of Perpetual Help is a parish family that embraces the call to holiness in order to know, love and serve Jesus Christ. As a diverse Catholic community filled with the Holy Spirit, we commit ourselves to proclaiming the Gospel and to reigniting God's light and love within each person, without regard to gender, race, cultural background, sexual orientation, economic or legal status.

Strengthened by sacramental worship and prayer, we embody compassionate outreach in our ministry and teaching. Our discipleship emulates the Blessed Mother in her humility and faithful service as we join in the mission of Christ to transform the world.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Turning the calendar page to September marks a new beginning in the lives of many who live by the academic year. Traditionally the start of the school year in the United States, this month can bring to mind the many calendars by which we live. There are fiscal years, academic years, television seasons, sports seasons—the list seems endless. Added to all of these is, of course, the liturgical year.

A Christian of the first century or so would have been hard-pressed to understand what we mean by a feast day or holy day. That person would have understood Sunday as the primary feast day, and Easter as the primary Sunday. It was only over time that the Church began to set aside particular days and seasons to commemorate certain events or highlight selected mysteries of the faith. What has evolved over the centuries is a “map” of our faith, written on the days and seasons of the year. Some have observed that one will absorb all the major teachings of the Church in the course of a single year of Sundays if one is attentive. What a wonderful way to get Christianity “into our bones!” And best of all, there are no grades!

DIOCESE OF ST. PETERSBURG
Office of the Bishop

August 26, 2024

Reverend Kyle Smith, Pastor
Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish
1711 E. 11th Avenue
Tampa, FL 33605

Dear Father Smith:

Thank you for your recent question regarding the advisability of and permission for distributing Holy Communion by intinction during Masses in your parish.

In the Diocese of St. Petersburg Guidelines for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, the following statement may be found regarding the distribution of Communion by intinction:

Although described in the Norms for the Distribution and Reception of Holy Communion Under Both Kinds in the Dioceses of the United States of America, the practice of receiving Communion by intinction has been discouraged in the Diocese of St. Petersburg. This practice demands the use of extra vessels and care and limits one's ability to receive in the hand (p. 6, para. G).

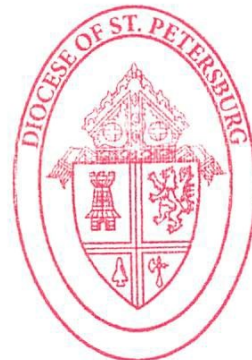

The Code of Canon Law states that bishops are "directors, promoters, and guardians of the entire liturgical life in the [diocese] entrusted to them" (canon 835, §1). In order for the practice of intinction to be permitted in parishes of the Diocese of St. Petersburg, I would need to grant permission to individual pastors who request it. Please note that permission for this practice will not be granted, and any use of intinction in your parish is to be discontinued.

Please know of my gratitude for your ministry to the people of God of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish. With every best wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Gregory Parkes
Bishop of St. Petersburg

Rev. Msgr. Robert F. Morris, Vicar General

Synagogue and Church Visits

Hosted by the Center for Catholic-Jewish Studies

One way to build understanding among members of different religious traditions is to study and discuss our respective approaches to prayer and worship.

In an effort to build deeper appreciation of the religious life of our neighbors, Saint Leo University's Center for Catholic-Jewish Studies (CCJS) invites you to attend one or both events at Congregation Kol Ami and St. Paul Catholic Church. Participants will learn about the distinctive liturgical traditions of each community from their clergy.

A question-and-answer session will be moderated by Dr. Matthew Tapie, associate professor of theology and CCJS director; and/or Rabbi David Maayan, the Maureen and Douglass Cohn Visiting Chair in Jewish Thought and CCJS assistant director.

CCJS thanks Rabbi Rachel Blatt from Congregation Kol Ami and Father Craig Morley from St. Paul Catholic Church for serving as hosts.
