Domingo de Ramos "de la Pasión del Señor TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

La liturgia oficial de la Iglesia para el Domingo de Ramos es algo paradójica. Entramos proclamando Hosannas con cantos y vitoreas y al poco tiempo esta-mos gritando: "¡crucificalo, crucificalo!" Según el rito la lectura del Evangelio y la consagración de la Eucaristía se hacen dentro del templo, pero se comienza afuera del templo con la bendición de los En los Estados Unidos y otros países latinoaméricanos se usan palmas en lugar de ramos. En Europa, normalmente, se usan ramos de olivos. Últimamente en Colombia para proteger la palma de cera del Quindío, se les ha pedido a los fieles que usen ramitas de plantas o ramos de flores. Estoy de acuerdo hay que protegral ambiente para de mita que profesor el ambiente para de mita ger el ambiente, pero admito que prefiero las palmas, ya que es difícil poner un ramo de olivo o de flores detrás de una imagen sagrada colgada en la pared. Esta es una costumbre latina que nos recuer-da que los "hosannas" y el "crucificalo" del domingo de ramos nos acompañan todos los días del año.

SUNDAY READINGS: Luke 19:28-40 (before procession); Isaiah 50:4-7; Psalm 22; Philippians 2:6-11; Luke

ADULT REFLECTION

At the start of Palm Sunday Mass, we hear of people greeting Jesus with palm branches and praise. Later, we read the whole story of how Jesus died. It starts with Jesus giving us himself in the Eucharist (which we celebrate on Holy Thursday). Then we hear about Jesus' suffering and death on the cross (Good Friday). Finally we hear of Jesus' body being laid in a tomb (kept in mind Holy Saturday). The final part of the story is revealed on Easter when God definitively defeats sin and death!

This is the week to pause and let all of this sink in, until it becomes personal. To listen as if we're hearing it for the first time. To see with our imagination, all the actions, words, gestures, and happenings surrounding the death of Jesus the One who surrenders to death so to defeat it.

- Perhaps you want to re-read this Gospel passage outside of Mass, on your own, when you can sit in silence somewhere. Let the Word of God itself speak to you. Ask the Holy Spirit to lead you.
- · What do you hear?
- · What is your connection to Jesus?
- · How do you feel?
- · What action is God calling you to?

FAMILY CONVERSATION STARTERS

Why do you think it was so important to Jesus to leave us himself in the Eucharist before he died?

It's been said that even if you were the only person who needed saving, Jesus would have died just for you. How does that make you feel? Does it call you to action in your life?

Jesus prayed for Peter that his faith would not fail. How can we pray for each other this week? What can we do as a family this Holy Week to walk closely with Jesus, remembering his love for us?

Lord Jesus! Thank you for your tender, personal, transforming love for each one of us. Thank you for your cross. Holy Spirit, help us quiet our hearts this Holy Week so that we can truly hear you. Move us to respond to your love with love. Amen.

Along with fasting on Good Friday, what routine can we fast from this Holy Week to make space for extra reflection. spiritual reading, and prayer?

ALMSGIVING

At the Last Supper, Jesus emphasized that a true leader is like him, "one who serves." What is one service or chore we can do for each other with greater love this week? What is one specific service we can do for someone outside our family?

Holy Week marks the culmination of our Lenten journey.

Beginning with the triumphant entrance on Palm Sunday, we walk with Jesus through his suffering and death on Holy Thursday and Good Friday. We end the week waiting at his tomb on Holy Saturday, and are made new by the power and joy of the victorious dawn: Easter Sunday – the Lord's Resurrection. The Mysteries celebrated in these days are at the heart of our Catholic faith. We've been preparing all of Lent to relive them with Jesus. The more we intentionally accompany Jesus and open our hearts to him, the more powerfully we will experience him accompanying us in our own dying's. . . and, beyond all our expectations, bringing us to share in his fullness of life, here and now.

The gathered liturgies of Holy Week are the high points of our celebrating. If attending Thursday—Saturday (the three days called the Triduum) has not been part of your family's practice, consider joining in this year! Liturgy timing can be a challenge with kids. But with creativity and parental modeling, these outside-the-ordinary times at church can truly mark this as a special week for your family. In addition to the possibility of participating in parish Triduum liturgies, create some simple expressions of faith in the also-sacred-space that is your home. Here are some ideas to make Holy Week come alive for your family, as you journey with Jesus and the Church in Living Holy Week.

HOLY THURSDAY

The day of Jesus' Last Supper and the first Mass! Jesus gives us his New Commandment: "Love one another as I have loved you." The is the night Jesus prays sorrowfully in the Garden of Olives and then is arrested.

TONE FOR OUR DAY:

Joy and thanksgiving for the great gift of the Eucharist

Sorrow in accompanying Jesus in his agony in the garden

- Go to Mass as a family (special parts to watch for: the Gloria with bells, the washing of feet, the transfer of the Eucharist from the altar/tabernacle to an altar of repose.)
- If you are unable to go to Mass (it is not a holy day of obligation), make a spiritual communion or pay a visit to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament at church - during the day or during the evening adoration at the altar of repose.
- Write specific ways of loving those in your household, neighborhood, or extended family on slips of paper. Draw them out during the day and do them.
- Today we also celebrate the beginning of the priesthood. Write a thank you note to your parish priest(s) thanking him for his service, example, and love for God.
- Wash each other's feet while meditating on Jesus' self-giving to his friends, to you, and his call to serve others.
- Bake a loaf of bread while talking about & reflecting on its place in the Passover and Jesus being our Bread of Life in the Eucharist. Share in the one loaf together at dinner, or save it for Faster
- Have a special dinner with candlelight and china, remembering the Lord's Last Supper.
- During grace before dinner, pray or sing the Gloria. Maybe even ring some bells while you're doing it. This joyful prayer of praise is omitted during Lenten liturgies, but is sung with gusto at the solemn Mass of the Lord's Supper.
- Set up an altar of repose. Use houseplants, flowers, candles, linens, and a favorite image of Jesus. Take turns "watching" with Jesus, accompanying him during his agony in the garden.
- Read a Gospel account of the Holy Thursday events in the life of Jesus.

GOOD FRIDAY

The day Jesus is put on trial, scourged, crowned with thorns, sentenced to death, made to carry his cross, is crucified and dies – all for love of us.

- Attend the Good Friday liturgy as a family. (Special parts to watch for: altar stripped of all décor & tabernacle empty, silent entrance and prostration by ministers, minimal music, veneration of the cross, extended petitions, Communion—but not the prayers of consecration, everyone encouraged to leave in silence).
- In addition to fasting from food, try fasting from: TV, music, social media and all unnecessary use of digital devices to maintain a spirit of silent reflection throughout this solemn day.
- Do a good examination of conscience and an act of contrition. Consider quietly reflecting on how you've hurt each other, as family members.
 "Confess" these to one another - seeking, giving, and receiving forgiveness.
- Take turns venerating a cross, even lying prostrate before one (like the priests/deacons do at the start of the Good Friday liturgy.) Sing "Were You There" or listen to an appropriate song.
- Pray the Stations of the Cross. Have your kids color the Stations and post them throughout the house Process with candles or a crucifix
- The Good Friday liturgy includes extensive prayers of petition. Write your own petitions and pray them together.
- Pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy at 3:00 p.m., the hour Jesus died.
- Read the account of the Passion in the Gospel of John, chapters 18-19.
- Construct and place a cross in your front yard to witness to your neighbors and passers-by.
- Have a simple, meatless soup supper, sharing: a favorite Station of the Cross, "dying's and rising's" in your own life, or insights from your Lent.

TONE FOR OUR DAY:

Sorrow for our own sins that caused Jesus' suffering

Sadness, gratitude and love as we remember all that Jesus went through

A certain silent, serious reverence and reflection

HOLY SATURDAY

The day Jesus was in the tomb, dead. His friends locked themselves away, grieving and fearful of what might happen next.

TONE FOR OUR DAY:

This is a day of waiting – with the apostles and especially with the Blessed Mother, Mary.

We are grateful for what Jesus has done, still a little serious, but we know the rest of the story and are looking forward to it.

Soon and very soon Jesus will rise!

- Observe a certain silence, reflectively waiting with Mary, while you prepare your home for Easter – cleaning, getting decorations and eggs ready, name cards for the Easter dinner table, etc.
- Pray the rosary
- Bake Resurrection Rolls
- Attend the Easter Vigil. It is a beautiful, richly symbolic, truly powerful liturgy. It tends to be long and late, so if impractical for little ones in the family, maybe one parent (and the older siblings) can attend.
- Pray an Easter vigil at home as a family. If it isn't possible to attend a local Easter Vigil, considering incorporating elements of the vigil into your family's prayer for the evening.
 - In darkness, light a candle (possibly your family's baptism candles) and share the flame from candle to candle. Pray and respond: "Christ, our Light. Thanks be to God."
 - Read stories of Salvation History by candlelight (using the Vigil readings or children's Bible books for kids).
 - Pray or sing the Gloria with bells & turn on the lights!
 - Bless yourselves with Holy Water and process around, blessing your house.
 - Renew your baptismal promises
 - Sing along to your favorite "Alleluia" song!
 - · Read the Easter Gospel story

EASTER SUNDAY

The day Jesus rose from the dead! "This is the day the Lord has made. Let us be glad and rejoice in it!"

- Go to Easter Sunday Mass and invite someone to go with you. (Special parts to watch for: the return of joyful "Alleluia's," sprinkling with holy water, a prayer before the Gospel called the Sequence, and the renewal of Baptismal promises.)
- Fill a small bottle with the blessed Easter water at church, to draw from for blessings at home.
- Dress up! The tradition of Easter clothes reminds us that we are a new creation. We have put on Christ
- Have an Easter egg hunt (out in the yard if possible), recalling the women searching in the garden for Jesus who was no longer in the tomb.
- Have a special meal in the formal dining room with linens, china, candles, flowers – make it truly a feast.
- Make a playlist of Easter- Alleluia songs to listen to throughout the day.
- Read the Easter story there are various accounts at the end of all four Gospels!
- If you placed a cross in your yard on Friday, find a way to witness to the Resurrection – drape it in a white cloth, add flowers, or the words "He is Risen." Invite your neighbors to contribute!
- As you encounter family members throughout the day, say and respond: "Christ is risen. He is indeed risen!"
- Take a few minutes of silence simply seeking to encounter the risen Christ in prayer and inviting him into your heart – with all of the power, peace, joy, and love that he brings.

TONE FOR OUR DAY:

Completely joyful and happy!

Jesus has won. He is with us!

He has opened heaven for us!
